Job Announcement

African American Studies Faculty Hire (Diaspora Studies)

The Department of African American Studies at the University at Buffalo (SUNY) invites applications for a tenure track position at the rank of Assistant Professor to begin in August, 2007. We encourage applications from candidates from all disciplines whose scholarship focuses upon a component of the African Diaspora (including, but not limited to the Caribbean, Latin America, the United States and/or Europe). The successful candidate will teach a range of graduate and undergraduate courses, including the Introduction to African American Studies and will be expected to train graduate students. The usual teaching load is two courses per semester. Evidence of scholarly potential and a strong commitment to research, teaching and service are expected. The PhD must be completed by August 2007.

Candidates should submit a cover letter, CV, at least three letters of reference and transcripts. Review of applications will begin November 15 and continue until the position is filled.
